

ENEMY INSIDE, Oblivion

Can't get these voices out of my head
Life's like a knife cutting into my flesh
O God can I be saved?

'Cause these deep wounds
Under my skin htey won't heal
Choking like tourniquet Got sed me free

We fall into oblivion
As darkness calling out our name
And as the air escapes my lung
We're hiding in oblivion

Waited so long for me screams
To be heart
Lost in a moment escaping this world
O God will I be saved?

'Cause these deep wounds
Under my skin htey won't heal
Choking like tourniquet Got sed me free

We fall into oblivion
As darkness calling out our name
And as the air escapes my lung
Our shadow's gone

We fall into oblivion
And kiss our memories goodbye
Am I too lost?
Come take home
We're hiding in oblivion

Lost in your embrace
Take me in your loving arms
As life fades away

We fall into oblivion
As darkness calling out our name
And as the air escapes my lung
Our shadow's gone

We fall into oblivion
And kiss our memories goodbye
Am I too lost?
Come take home
We're hiding in oblivion

Oblivion
