ENHYPEN, Drunk-Dazed

Beautiful and brilliant My glittering viosion is a diamond In a world with no rules Everything's been turned upside down

Turning up the party, now My feet up in teh sky, wow People going ha ha high Ringing in my ears is la la lound

It;s blinding baby His light, shining We're in love with this carival

Honestly i am scared The world's drunk is a swirling glass At te Edge is my burning heart But i just wanna stay

I feel it
My head's in a Daze Daze Daze
I am addicted
I replay play play
The way you want it
Go as far as you can to reach it
