

Ensiferum, Run From the Crushing Tide

Far away, so long ago
The oldest story that has ever been told
A boy and a girl, a pure, forbidden love
Nothing, not even a roaring sea, could keep these hearts apart

Sun, moon and stars
Nature, bless our love
All I need is you by my side
Oceans, divide!

Run for your life (Don't look behind)
Run from the lies (Don't apologize)
Run for the love (We'll never hide)
Run from the crushing tide

Sent away, he was locked behind the walls
Desperate escape, they rose against the world
Her father summoned a demon and cursed the islands apart
Trembling seabed, the last embrace before the flood

Sun, moon and stars
Nature, bless our love
All I need is you by my side
Oceans, divide!

Run for your life (Don't look behind)
Run from the lies (Don't apologize)
Run for the love (We'll never hide)
Run from the crushing tide

Run for your life (Don't look behind)
Run from the lies (Don't apologize)
Run for the love (We'll never hide)
Run from the crushing tide

Run for your life (Don't look behind)
Run from the lies (Don't apologize)
Run for the love (We'll never hide)
Run from the crushing tide

Run for your life (Don't look behind)
Run from the lies (Don't apologize)
Run for the love (We'll never hide)

Run from the crushing tide
Run from the crushing tide
(Run from the crushing tide)
Run from the crushing tide
(Run from the crushing tide)
Run from the crushing tide
(Run, run, run, run, run from the crushing tide)
