

Eric Maliet, All I Ever Had

Close your eyes
I'm further than i think
Close you eyes
I'll tumble and i'll sink
I'm not alone and i'm not that sad
'cause my life is all i've ever had

I find it hard
I find it hard
I find it hard to let you go
I find it hard
I find it hard
I find it hard to let you go

Take my hand
Or else i'll fall apart
Take my hand
Now tears will break my heart
I'll cross the road and i'll go back home
'cause your love is all i've ever owned

I find it hard
I find it hard
I find it hard to let you go
I find it hard
I find it hard
I find it hard to let you go

I find it hard
I find it hard

Hold me tight
It never what it seems
Hold me tight
I've broken all my dreams
I will pretend that we never kissed
But your lips are all i'll ever miss

I find it hard
I find it hard
I find it hard to let you go
I find it hard
I find it hard
I find it hard to let you go

I find it hard i find it hard
Oh oh oh no i find it hard to let you go
