

Erik Segerstedt, Wherever you are

I put my faith in tomorrow
And try to sleep for a while *Maybe a new day will fallow*
That'll make it all right
Now when I feel so down and out
Somehow you're still by my side
And I hope
Life is good
Wherever you are
You will be
Forever in my heart
Where you couldn't hold on
I will try to be strong
I just hope you belong
Wherever you are
If I had told you the right things
Would it matter at all?
If I only knew you were standing
On the edge waiting to fall
Oh I would give just anything
To see your face, to hear your voice
Just one more time, oh
And I hope
Life is good
Where ever you are
You will be
Forever in my heart
Where you couldn't hold on
I will try to be strong
I just hope you belong
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
Oh, where you couldn't hold on
I will try to be strong
I just hope you belong
Wherever you are
Wherever you are
