

Escape The Fate, 10 Miles Wide

whoa yeah

you say you're getting close to a last chance of suicide tearing at your throat you won't let it die left me here for all these days and ripped apart my pride take my place and look inside i'm trying to find a place to hide, hide

lost my faith but don't you cry i got a hole inside and it's ten miles wide living on the coast cocktails and telling lies gotta f**king curse that's coming to life you left me here for all these days and ripped apart my pride

take my place and look inside i'm trying to find a place

it's not to late i'm close behind i've gotta get inside your mind mind
wide
wide
wide
wide
wide
wide

take me on i'm feeling in the mood for something dangerous i've found myself again

well i lost myself and looked inside it branded me for life i can't help myself it's mine to hide i got a hole inside

it's feeling ten miles
it's feeling ten miles wide

ten miles wide
ten miles wide
