

Eskobar, Ease Your Way

Ease your way
trough the dark times of the day watch your love
as you walks down
that I

if you love her
you should tell her
that you felling down, down, down
if it matters
she will listen
to what you have to say

For the once you never knew in our time
and our shame is hard to find
on their own
lifting stones
and it's our who break their bones
me and you
never knew
and our shame is hard to do
and it goes
and it goes
lots of time
