

Eskobar, Imaginary Gun

So watch out
Here comes a real man
He can crush you in his hand
And he will prove to you
That he's a real man
No doubt in his mind
I hope some day he will find
But for now inside my mind

I will pull my imaginary gun and I'll shoot you down
But you're not even worth these bullets of my mind so I spare the next round
And there's no guarantee for this security in me, no higher ground
But for now I now I pull my imaginary gun and shoot you down
