

Eskobar, Real Life

And I'm free
To speak the mind about you
And I see
What any other guy would do

Why would I put you down?
Under water no breath
No matter what I've found
Nor what you did to me

Is this real
Life
For you

You see love
Is out there
For you to

And I plead
Guilty on every account
There's no need
For excuses of why I got out
