

Eskobar, Something Is Lost

When something is lost
And it can't be found
You think about love
It always let you down

But stories they change
It may take some time
Our lives rearranged
They always let you down

Why do you say, you never pray,
But you do?

When it's over and out
And you're alone inside
You think about love
It used to let you down

Why do you say, you never pray,
But you do?