

Eskobar, You Forget Me

When it comes a time, a truth, a sign
When they do declare it's all in mind

I say don't you forget me
Hanging from a tree
I say don't you forget me
(or) we'll set those people free
It goes...

When it runs a stream as red as wine
And they do all declare it's all in mind

I say don't you forget me
Hanging from a tree
I say don't you forget me
(or) we'll set those people free
It goes...
