

evan and jaron, The Bitch Song

You walk away
You turn around
You stomp your feet
You kiss the ground
And I
Should understand you so
Remove any good
Decreed to me
Oh I live blind
So you should see
What I
Already know
You're a bitch and you'll always be
There's a bitch on every branch of your family tree
If bitchiness had numbers
You'd be infinity
You're a bitch and you'll always be
There's a bitch on every branch of your family tree
If bitchiness had numbers
You'd be infinity
I'm too smooth
Now I'm too rough
Whatever it is
It's never good enough
For the one
Who has to have it her way
You roll your eyes
You swing your hair
You throw your arms up in the air
And make-believe you don't hear what I say
You're a bitch and you'll always be
There's a bitch on every branch of your family tree
If bitchiness had numbers
You'd be infinity
You're a bitch and you'll always be
There's a bitch on every branch of your family tree
If bitchiness had numbers
You'd be infinity
Repeat
Remove any good decreed to me
Oh I live blind
So you should see
What I
Already know
