

Everyday Sunday, I Won't Give Up

You know how sometimes you meet somebody
Who changes your life
But then after awhile you forget how you though
About what changed everything

chorus

Tell me what's your reason
You found me in this treason
I didn't think that I'd come through
Then I thought that I failed You
I tell You that I still love You
Well I tell You that I'm guilty, I messed up
But You're still the one I love
Please forgive me Jesus
I promise I won't give up

So I know I forgot what it means just to love
Without caring about my selfish thoughts
I just want to remember what it's like to glorify You
And let it go
