

Exit East, Holy

I could lift my hands,
And sing Your praises,
But that's not justice for who You are,
Lamb of God I worship You,
Not for what You've done but,
For Who You are,

And I've found out life's worth living,
Happy are they that are found in You,
I see You and I see all I am, cause You are,

Holy,
Holy, the God of my will and my salvation,
You are, Holy
Holy, King of my desires,
You are Holy,

You gave your Son,
So noble of a cause,
To save all of Your lost,
And by Your purpose in election now stands,
Not by works I've done but,
By Your Sovereign hand,

And I've found out life's worth living,
Happy are they that are found in You,
I see You and I see all I am, cause You are,

Cause you are Holy,
Holy, the God of my will and my salvation,
You are, Holy
Holy, King of my desires,
