

Fabulous, Can't Let You Go Remix

(JP)

yeah, yeah

JP, JP

Fabulous, Fabulous

cant let you go, cant let you go remix, remix

yeah, ya heard me, heard me

yo, yeah, yeah

i remember walkin through the door and seein you there

beauty glowin like a flare from the toes to the hair

d-d-d-d-damn

the only words to describe you the thoughts of gettin inside you

??????????

i stare you stand back

our eyes met

for those few seconds i was in heaven but now im ?????

never talkin to you

never even sayin hi

never sayin bye

now i sit up and then i cry cuz the thought of never seein you again kills just thinking of that beatifull face gives me the chills

it was fate that bought us to the same place at the same time i had the hook with the look we was ready like game time thought i was ready to spit some G but it didnt happen

it seems too late but uhuh ????? rappin baby girl you got me hooked and im determind i gotta go to see you again before i turn grey you know

(chorus lil mo)

i really wanna be with you (be with you)

wanna be real with you (real with you)

cant leave you alone (no)

i know i'll live in wrong

but i cant let you go

you're the one i want in my life (one in my life)

already got a wife (got a wife)

(fabolous)

You aint ever step out of line

Or get out a pocket

So i made sure canary sent out your locket

To protect you, i'll get out and cock it

And you know the barrel of my gun is big enough to spit out a rocket

Oh, you gonna play dumb if cops do come through

I gotta keep the top up if my drop do come through

But i know the boutiques and the shops you run through

So i cop her one, and cop you one too

You always get a daily page, weekly ring

Plus you aint too shy to do them freaky things

I aint gotta put a ring on your finger I worry about you tellin the whole world im your new allen springer At first you were somethin i denied Something I would slide Just do somethin in the ride
But shorty Theres something that you provide cuz the entre aint as good without somethin on the side you know

(chorus lil mo)

cant leave you alone (lone)
but i cant let you go
you're the 1 i want in my life (one in my life)
already got a wife (got a wife)
can't leave you alone (no)
i know i'll live in wrong
but i can't let you go

(fabolous)

uhoh
i might be leavin the earth soon my girl gon kill me if she smell the scent of your perfume its gon be a clip towards if i go back with stains of your lipgloss on my throwback She wont care if im a platinum rapper If she catch me with an empty magnum wrapper So keep it on the down low call the carsely You seen what happened with Mr. Big and R Kelly

(lil mo)

you know i care for you (care for you) any time you know this chick is there for you (there for you) feelin's ima share with you which makes it a little more clear for you

(chorus lil mo) X2

i really wanna b with you (be with you)
wanna be real with you (real with you)
i know i'll live in wrong
but i cant let you go
already got a wife (got a wife)
can't leave you alone (no)
i know i'll live in wrong
but i can't let you go
