Face To Face, 14 Hours

14 hours to go And the waiting's almost done When I get back home You're going to be the only one

Staring at the lights or staring at the sun Everyday another fight or ill to overcome Another day another place Forgot the name but not the face I've been away for too long to remember

14 hours to go And the waiting's almost done When I get back home You're going to be the only one

Suspended animation countdown has begun Hurry up and wait for all of the things that must be done It doesn't matter what state I'm in They've all been waiting so let's begin I know that when I'm back I'm going to miss it

I hate it when someone complains about their life So I hope you know exactly what I'm saying You won't get what you want without a sacrifice Just be careful what you wish for you might get it
