

Face To Face, How To Ruin Everything

There's something wrong with me I don't know if it's not just inside my head
It feels like I'm walking through a dream
I still remember what you said
I know that everything will be alright
It's going to work out for the best I think there must be something better still It isn't really so far-fetched

You know I'll go running out
and ruin everything
You know I'll go running out
and ruin everything

It's hard to trust in somebody else responsible for your success
But in the end I know it's up to me
I live my life with no regrets
So tell me everything I want to hear What do you like about me best?
I've been a king and I've been a fool
I'm not about to give up yet

You know I'll go running out
and ruin everything
You know I'll go running out
and ruin everything

I've had enough of the promises
I've had enough of empty threats
Some people wait for opportunity
Why should I wait? I haven't yet
I want to burn down the prejudice
I want to destroy the evidence Is all that really matters what you're worth?
Then what is it worth for your two cents?

You know I'll go running out
and ruin everything
You know I'll go running out
and ruin everything
