

Faithbomb, Fear Of God

trouble with the world is that nobody cares time is kinda short and I'm kinda scared talk about the end times it gets in your hair on your knees scream for truth I double dog dare you

Make it real simple be ready to go or you're standing in the fire with nothing to show years burn away wasted time mounted guilt too late to tear down the walls you have built fear of god fear of god fear of god
