

Fallen Prophet, FALLEN PROPHET

I'm not a prophet, just a simple poor man
Open your mind, you'll be reborn again
Uncovering secrets for an ounce of gold
Prepare your mind for the story untold

Pay to pray, It's all the same
Heaven's gate opens for the rich
Close your eyes, don't you criticize
I'll be the one to toggle the switch

This cult has been made to please the rich men
Poor filthy mob will just not understand
All of the answers you can find in my book
Then you will see why they call me a crook

Pay to pray, It's all the same
Heaven's gate opens for the rich
Close your eyes, don't you criticize
I'll be the one to toggle the switch

(Solo: Michał Mroczek)

Religions are false, just garther 'round me
Out of our world comes this conspiracy
Since "Incident Two", we are waiting so long
Millions of blind followers cannot be wrong

Pay to pray, It's all the same
Heaven's gate opens for the rich
Close your eyes, don't you criticize
I'll be the one to toggle the switch

Delusions of grandeur, paranoid schizophrenia
Persecution complex, blackmail agenda
Bigamy and frauds, strong messiah complex
Bow your heads down before the fallen prophet
