

Fallen Prophet, Sorrow of the Doomed

Fire in the darkness, I hear from afar their last screams
I'm walking like blind man in hallway of empty souls
Her voice fell silent, in blackness I'm alone
Fire doesn't shine (my eyes), the blood begins to run

Below horizon the sun is setting down
World will soon be fuckin' done
Below horizon the sun is setting down
World will soon be fuckin' done

Your heart poured acid, toxin infects another smile
Evil done by us, at the beginning of the world
What have I done to see the heavens shine?
Now it's my time to gather all that I have done.

My body is no longer able to run
Not just world but I am fuckin' done
My body is no longer able to run
Not just world but I am fuckin' done

I saw death, dreams of the end
Loss of life, vicious wall of truth

Numb with pain
This horror drives me insane
Scarred for life
All your empty worlds denied

I am above all, I'm alive with will to fight
No more filled with fear, walking through fields of dead
Deep in this madness, I'm chased by ray of divine light
Fists clenched with hate, before my throne bow down thy head

Things I saw can't bring me down
Joined the legion, reaching for the crown
Things I saw can't bring me down
Joined the legion, reaching for the crown

I saw death, dreams of the end
Loss of life, vicious wall of truth
I am death, bringer of end
Loss of life, vicious wall of truth
