

Fame Factory, Standing In The Light (Martina Edoff)

I wonder where you are tonight, I walk alone in the city
No matter where, I see your face, I want you here by my side

I'm standing in the light, of your love, you carry me through the night, oh, and when we touch, I know deep inside, I'm alive, cuz' I just can't get enough of your love

I'm walking down, these endless streets, the sound of silence surrounds me, no matter where, I hear your voice, in every heartbeat, in every step that I take

I'm standing in the light, of your love,
you carry me through the night,
oh and when we touch, I know
deep inside, I'm alive, cuz' I just can't get enough of your love (not enough of your love)
enough of your love
(not enough of your love)

I'm waiting so long to find no more lying, I've got tears before I want you believe in love again, til' the end

I'm standing in the light, of your love,
you carry me through the night,
oh and when we touch, I know deep inside, I'm alive baby

I'm standing in the light, of your love,
you carry me through the night,
oh and when we touch, I know
deep inside, I'm alive, cuz' I just can't get enough of your love
(not enough of your love)
enough of your love
(not enough of your love)
deep inside, I'm alive, cuz' I just can't get enough of your love
