

Fantasia, 'Til My Baby Comes Home

I gotta talk to y'all for a minute Because, see
There's a whole lot of men tryna get at a sista
But I tell them, I say you know what, I have a man
They say to me but where's your man now,
Your man not there with you,
You need a man to be there with you at all times but You know
No matter where my baby is I love him
Til my baby comes home I'll still be here Waiting on him

There's a whole lot of guys meshing around tryin to get me they do thing cause they know my man away they try to upset me they can't believe i resist How can I hold out where is my man now but the truth really is i dont worry cause i love my baby so

No matter where my baby is he never leaves me without love he gives me love til i get enough and im alright Til my baby comes home
If he stays away for long He calls me on the phone i jump up when i hear his voice
And im alright Til my baby comes home

Listen
I get weak in the knees
My hands start to shake Head starts to aching Is he thinking of me or feeling the fire with some other girl
I cant believe i can be worried about him
I shouldn't doubt him Cause ill love is for real and I don't worry cause I know I know I know

No matter where my baby is(no matter,no matter,no matter) he never leaves me without love(he never,he never,he never) he gives me love til i get enough(yeah,yeah) and im alright Til my baby comes home(yes im alright,yes im alright)
If he stays away for long
He calls me on the phone(then he calls me) i jump up when i hear his voice(and i jump up)
And im alright Til my baby comes home

It doesn't matter when you come home baby bring it on home to me he makes everything feel alright (baby baby baby) be good to me he's the best one in my whole life (baby baby baby)can't you tell that im a brand new woman and im doing very well cause i know he coming back home tonight

and im alright Til my baby comes home
Til my baby comes home
Til my baby comes home
Oh Til my baby comes home
Oh Til my baby comes home
Til my baby comes home
and im alright Til my baby comes home
