

Faron Young, Some Of Your Memories (hurt Me A

I can never remember
The joy we once knew
And I seem to forget
All the times you were true.
But the moment you left me
Is still on my mind
Some of those memories
Hurt me all of the time.
The days when you loved me
I can never recall
But the nights when you cheated
I remember them all/
Oh, that last lonely night
When you left me here behind
Some of those memories
Hurt me all of the time.
If I could remember
Heart of the happiness
Then maybe I wouldn't
Have to cry all alone like this.
I'm always thinkin'
Of the many times that you lied
Instead of thinkin'
Of the many times that you tried.
Oh, I can't free myself from this prison
Of mem'ries that bind
Some of those memories
Hurt me all of the time...
