

Farse, Maiden

Well I check the time
Stand in line
I'm on my own again
By myself
My best friend
All those things you did, you said
Never really meant
So right now I'm back here once again
Lonely now
Need a friend

Walking round in circles
Looking for my destiny
Can't seem to find myself
Don't go pushing me

Walking round in circles
Looking for my destiny
Can't seem to find myself
Don't go pushing me

You lose your ?
So you can see
You lose your ?
So you can see

Well I check the time
Stand in line
I'm on my own again
By myself
My best friend
All those things you did, you said
Never really meant
So right now I'm back here once again
Lonely now
Need a friend

Walking round in circles
Looking through my destiny
Can't seem to find myself
Don't go pushing me

Walking round in circles
Looking through my destiny
Can't seem to find myself
Don't go pushing me

You lose your ?
So you can see
You lose your ?
So you can take

Well its alright you can take
Well its alright you can take
