

Fatty Koo, Princess in Disguise

(Verse 1:)

Like a perfect ten in a magazine were the girls that caught my eyes
Sophisticated queen with the sex appeal

Beauty no less than a dime

But the girl that really caught my heart wasn't anything like that at first glance you wouldn't see it...

But she was really bad

-papasito, venconmigo

-dejame demostrar a ti

-que tu no puedes ver

-la mujer (marya-dentro) de mi

(Chorus:)

She's just an average girl

Ain't got no mink and pearls still she's like royalty

She's a princess in disguise

She's got a heart of gold

Within a tale untold, that's where her beauty lies

She's a princess in disguise

Her smile is like a twinkle in the sky

A diamond in the ruff with the heart of a child

Her true beauty is more then skin deep

Because the essence of a women is hidden underneath

(Chorus)

(Verse 2:)

-tomame al castillo que estan en los nubas

Hasme princesa de tu corazon, mi serviente de amor

Desde alli, viajar a otros lugares

Para vivir momentos inolvidables

You stole my heart and sealed it with a kiss

No matter where i look, it can't get no better than this

My princess, my goddess, you came from up above

I'll treat you like royalty, with all my love

Your heart is pure, together we explore

We build on honesty, one solid core

You caught my eye, i can't deny

You're in my heart, you are my pride

(Chorus)
