

Fifth Harmony, No Catching Feelings

[Verse 1 - Camila]

I see, you tryin' to make your way over
Baby, it's time for you to move over
Maybe, it works for them other girls
But, me, I ain't like no other girls

[Pre-Chorus - Normani and Lauren]

See you're doing too much, boy you got it bad
But you're doing all that, boy, you tryna act
Like you didn't mess up
And Imma take you back
No

[Chorus - Camila/All and (Dinah)]

No catching feelings
Had to let you go
No catching feelings
Thought that you should know
No catching feelings
That's just how it goes
I did told you once, I won't tell you twice
Don't want no more of this, Goodbye
Feelings, had to let you go
No catching feelings
Thought that you should know
No catching feelings
That's just how it goes
I did told you once, I won't tell you twice
Don't want no more of this, Goodbye
(Bye)

[Verse 2 - Lauren]

I know, You're all alone and you miss me
I know, You wish that you could still kiss me
Now you, See what I was talkin' bout' babe
I said, I ain't like them other girls

[Pre-Chorus - Normani and Lauren]

See you're doing too much, boy you got it bad
But you're doing all that, boy, you tryna act
Like you didn't mess up
And Imma take you back, No

[Chorus - Camila/All]

No catching feelings
Had to let you go
No catching feelings
Thought that you should know
No catching feelings
That's just how it goes
I did told you once, I won't tell you twice
Don't want no more of this, Goodbye
Feelings, had to let you go
No catching feelings
Thought that you should know
No catching feelings
That's just how it goes
I did told you once, I won't tell you twice
Don't want no more of this Goodbye, Bye, Bye

[Bridge - Ally]

Can't bring you happy or hello, hello, hello
Love was fine but now I know, know, know

Away from me just ain't enough
If I'm asking for too much
Safe to say, I'm giving up, Ohh

[Chorus - Camila/All and (Ally)]
No catching feelings
Had to let you go (had to let you go)
No catching feelings
Thought that you should know (thought that you should know)
No catching feelings
That's just how it goes
I did told you once, I won't tell you twice
Don't want no more of this, goodbye
Feelings, had to let you go
No catching feelings
Thought that you should know
No catching feelings
That's just how it goes
I did told you once, I won't tell you twice
Don't want no more of this goodbye, bye, bye
