Film School, He's A Deep Deep Lake

All that she had to say Calling you out, wake up alone We trusted you To make up our minds, colden our eyes Quicken the time Again I couldn't lie Everything's over sometime I should've died I'm alright Again Everything's right Everything for a short time Just as you like Open your eyes, open your eyes Everything for a short time Dust in your eyes I'm alright Again Fourty miles high, it's alright tonight I'll go away Did you lie alone? I'll go away It's alright, you're down, I'll go away
