

Finch, Don't Kill Me On The Inside

(2)now!

is the time for me to leave
before you tear me apart
please don't kill me on the inside
'cause my heart bleeds (all of this two times)

now!

i'm gone before the storm my mind is full of hate
'cause of the night when you broke my heart your arms were around him

now!

the storm is gone
but my heart still hurts

(2) now!

is the time for me to leave
before you tear me apart
please don't kill me on the inside
'cause my heart bleeds (all of this two times)

now!

the storm is over i'm still hurt from the pain that you made i can't see past myself it's dark in this room
my mind is still in pain from yesterday

now!

i'm inside of my mind
'cause of the pain is still over me i want to find a way to go back to you!
