

Finley Quaye, This Is How I Feel

I love you even more

Holding on, drifting, for the meantime
Call my name, if you need me some time
In tenderness, the sweetest kiss
Now I want to show you affection.

Holding you tight, right through the night, through everyday
I should have wrote you a letter many times
I found you, in the wilderness
Now I want show you, commitment

You're free to cry on my, shoulder, anytime
You're gonna fly when you get older, all the time
In tenderness, the sweetest kiss
Now I want to show you perfection

It's been a long, way, home
When it's cold outside, and it's raining, raining down
I found you, in the wilderness
Now I want to show you affection

Now I'll love you, if you want me to
I'm gonna love you, even when I'm poor
I'm gonna love you, gonna love you even more
