

First Blood, Suffocate

The polluted face of life hiding in black clouds unknowingly killing you, killing me
HIS FILTHY HANDS are wrapped around our trusting throats but the last thing that we need is another
SUFFOCATE... of death down below
Suffering in solitude as your last breath slips away... with no one ever knowing
From the last generation, turning their backs to the truth, to the new generation, continue to spread
Suffocate on lies with your rebellion against the truth...
Ignorant minds hide from the truth...
Angry minds defy the truth...
Greedy minds deny the truth... as we all SUFFOCATE
