

First State, Your Own Way

Nothing was right
What could I say
Nothing was lost
When you said ok
Everything seen
Everything done
Everything taken
Taken them one
Broken windows
Fallin' apart
Distant city
Stop and start
You got me through
Some lonely nights
Lost myself but
You always catch your mind
That's how I know that
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
Where can we run
Nowhere to hide
Where do we go to
Is there still time
Something so clear
Clear as the day
Something to live for
Somewhere to stay
Broken whispers open doors
Empty hallways, bedroom floor
You saw me through
Some crazy times
I lost my soul
But you always catch your mind
That's how I know that
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
u000000
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
u000000
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
You never gonna lose your own way
Your own way
