

Five O'Clock Heroes, Number Again

Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
I get up all the time
I come home I can die oh-oh-oh-oh
Well I'm talking too much
Too much and too loud
You should watch where you step
Keep your head to the ground
Change your name and address
Get yourself outta town
Give a little, give a little
Give a little
Give a little respect
I've been ill, sittin' round thinkin' 'bout you
And I told you once more
I tell you once more
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
I remember your face, I have seen you around
Oh oh oh oh
I dont easily chase but if I could be allowed
This time
Give a little, give a little
Give a little
Give a little respect
I've been ill, sittin' round thinkin' 'bout you
And I told you once more
I tell you once more
Ooh-oh-oh
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
Want your number again
I think you ought to have known
I'm the only one who wants you baby
