

FIVER, Monika Lewczuk, Wild

Every day, Every day,
I used to wake up sadly in fear
Looking back, Looking back,
It wasn't me

You did make me feel save
No failure, no more chance

And I'm becoming wild
Something I'm gonna try, try
I'm breaking all the rules
To celebrate my life

I wanna try, try, try
To celebrate my life

I was worn
Feeling small
Standing in your fading black
Couldn't smell real life
Feeling only dizzier
I'm no longer the one
Who is little and shy
I'm so over you
I could scream like a child
I can dance like I'm wild
Far away from you

You did make me feel save
No failure, no more chance

And I'm becoming wild
Something I'm gonna try, try
I'm breaking all the rules
To celebrate my life

I wanna try, try, try
To celebrate my life
