

Flames Of Rock, When I Wake Up

Life isnt easy
Lifes really tough
When I look into the mirror
I feel I've had enough

chourus:
When i wake up
I wanna feel something new
When i wake up
I wanna know that im right there with you
Theres a feeling thats inside
And i wanna set it right
But i cant, i wanna hide inside
When i wake up
I fell im sitting right there next to you (next to you)

Life isnt a favorite
Life is enough, to put me down and toss me around
Life makes me wanna cry

Chrous

When i wake up
I wanna feel something new
When i wake up
I wanna know that im right there with.....you

COMMENT: this is a short song as you probably know!
Better and longer songs are soon to come~
