

Florrie, Little White Lies

Victim of my own good intentions
I can't say no
My hands tied, I'm trying to stay afloat

I've been feeling like I'm out on the edge again
My breathing shallows
I can't pretend

Little white lies
We came for ourselves, and will never tell
Ain't hurting nobody with little white lies
Nobody else gets together
Hope that nobody knows
These little white lies
We came for ourselves, and will never tell
Ain't hurting nobody with little white lies
Nobody else gets together
Hope that nobody knows
These little white lies

Victim of my own good intentions
I can't say no
And all my thoughts can't shove when I'm alone
Victim of my own good intentions
I can't say no
My half's died
I'm trying to stay afloat

I've been feeling like I'm out on the edge again
My breathing shallows
I can't pretend

Little white lies
We came for ourselves, and will never tell
Ain't hurting nobody with little white lies
Nobody else gets together
Hope that nobody knows
These little white lies
We came for ourselves, and will never tell
Ain't hurting nobody with little white lies
Nobody else gets together
Hope that nobody knows
