

Flybanger, Pull

If I took your mind and slowly replaced it with you what's in my head, you'd see right through lending all your thoughts so touching my fears and beliefs on breaking I'd need some truths

Send me down the river

Soak me through my fear send me down the river help me forget the numbness of you

Why are you always the one to follow my lead into darkness that can't e cleared

Why are you always the one to notice all rejected chances to end all my suffering whatsamatter you whatsamatter you?

Why do you follow

Pull

And I'm feeling hit Yea I'm feeling down

Will you be the one to pull my mind from the body

And I'm feeling hit yeah I'm feeling down

Will you be the one to pull my tears away?
