

Fold Zandura, Slumbersix

let me walk

ever so slow

into the haze

i want to go

let every tear

aching to fall

drown every word

hurting you so

another place

the same mistakes

i want to hold you to me

open the word

wider than lies

clearer than light

to the eyes

the slumber is sweet

but bitter the sleep

i wake in your arms back to life

another time

we'll say goodnight

i want to pull you to me

life,

love

are lost in you
