

Foster The People, Lamb's Wool

It's hard to look into your eyes
Knowing it might be the last time
The spaces in between our breathes
They're singing to the Infinite

Sudden changes
Make the air uncomfortable
I'll hold you so you're not alone

When i am quiet on te other side
Know thta i amloving you
That's all i do
Is keep loving you

You're fine my love
Never mind cause i am here
I keep laughing to myslef
I am sos in love with loving you
That's all i do
Is keep loving you
Whenre things will change
But i will always be the same

The silence is lonely thing
Waiting for a sound to fall
A lullaby to calm our sleep
The promise of another world

Sudden changes
Make the air uncomfortable
I'll hold you so you're not alone

When i am quiet on te other side
Know thta i amloving you
That's all i do
Is keep loving you

You're fine my love
Never mind cause i am here
I keep laughing to myslef
I am sos in love with loving you
That's all i do
Is keep loving you
Whenre things will change
But i will always be the same
