

Four Star Mary, Never Mind

you could send me a saviour that lives 'til the end of time promise the heavens
but that only leaves me dry

too many saviours
fuck with me
and i won't die

i'd never mind
i'm only half as blind
'cause i needed more
from you

you say my reflection
never fades from your eyes could change my direction but what i feel can't disguise

see my reflection
crushing me
and i won't die

i've never cried
but i needed more from you
i've found my life
without you now

from you
