

Four Year Strong, Your Song

When you know that im gone you will say to yourself
Al have nothing anymore,
nothing to ignore,
no one to make sure you=re ok
to make sure you=re ok..

You've got bedtime eyes and you bat 'em like a hero and to no surprise you just kill me, kill me sometimes.

(Sometimes)

Im not getting any closer getting any closer
getting any closer
any closer to you again
its not the same as it used to be before

Like times of sneaking
lips speaking in whispers and I kissed hers
but did she know it all along I swear she knew it all along Its like holding her responsible for everything, all the things I've become

You're the one to blame for...
for everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

You're the one to blame for...
for everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

When you know that im gone you will
say to yourself
Al have nothing anymore,
nothing to ignore,
no one to make sure you=re ok
to make sure you're ok..

Like times of sneaking
lips speaking in whispers
and I kissed hers
but did she know it all along
I swear she knew it all along
Its like holding her responsible
for everything, all the things I=ve become

Everything means nothing and that nothing means everything to me

You've got bedtime eyes
and you bat 'em like a hero and to no surprise
you just kill me, kill me sometimes.

(Sometimes)

getting any closer
getting any closer
any closer to you again
its not the same as it used to be before

You're the one to blame for...

You're the one to blame for...

You're the one to blame for...
for everything, all the things I've become
You're the one to blame for...

When you know that im gone you will
say to yourself
Al have nothing anymore,
nothing to ignore,
to make sure you're ok..
