Frank Black, Do You Feel Bad About It?

Let me tell you what I would do I'd consider the possibility of a mistake Yeah, if I were you I would give me a break

Do you feel bad about it? Do you feel sad about it? Do you feel sick about it? This parting of the ways?

I don't want to chat about it I want to scream and shout about it 'Cause I ain't had it about this This parting of the ways

Well, I served you up all my affection But that didn't work out so great And I'd help you with your defection But I still think I'm your best fate

Let me tell you what I would do I'd consider the possibility of a mistake Yeah, if I were you I would give me a break

Do you feel bad about it? Do you feel sad about it? Do you feel sick about it? This parting of the ways?

I don't want to chat about it I want to scream and shout about it 'Cause I ain't had it about this This parting of the ways

Well, I never will be ashamed Of begging you, begging you for more of the same
