

Franklin Daniel, I Am Yours (Angel)

I danced with you just the other night I couldn't get you out of my sight
You got me inspired I felt a passion beneath the dancefloor lights
You're the queen of my heart, girl, you're my lady, you're my delight,
You're the lamp of my soul, girl, and you light up the night.
Take me now I am yours I am yours
Take me now I am yours I am yours
I'm so crazy 'bout you girl... Would you be my angel?
The moon was high and so was I cos I was drowning in your eyes
I just could not believe That this was happening to me
You're the queen of my heart, girl, you're my lady, you're my delight,
You're the lamp of my soul, girl, and you light up the night.
I've been searching seems like so long For perfection In a world made wrong
Slowly but surely I found myself thinking I'm falling in love again
