

Frente!, Clue

do you have a clue?
you don't have a clue i've seen you talking with your friends friends
clever young jokes in a world that never ends ends
all the stars in the sky
just crossed your eyes
all the blood to your brain
is in vain
is in vain
walking up the steps with the lies behind your lips all your stupid friends love you for your mind i've seen you, perfectly designed don't make me smile, don't make me smile all you thoughts are perfectly unkind don't make me smile
is in vain
is in vain

is in vain
is in vain
