

Frenzal Rhomb, Roger

I turn you on at 6 o'clock why is it that you're such a cock You smile and tell me that it's a good evening Then you put on that stupid frown talk about the bullshit going down It's hard to stop myself from leaving

When you're looking like there's something wrong and looking like it won't be long till you tell me all 10,000 people are dying then you wipe off that stupid frown why don't you take a look around It's hard to stop myself from crying

I wish I was as credible as Roger Climpson why can't you see it's just a game Your Christian viewpoint's just the same as the asshole that some phony judge is trying I'm sure that were all well aware that Roger Climpson dyes his hair doesn't it make you wonder if he's lying?
