

Funny Van Dannen, Holy Man

Hes travelling from town to town Hes preaching what he can
No evil spell can bring him down Cause hes a holy man

Hes a holy man, hes a holy man Hes a holy man, hes a holy man
Hes a holy man, hes a holy man Hes a holy man, hes a holy man

When he rode into Jerusalem The people said: Hello
They screamed at him: How do you do? And he said: I dont know

Im a holy man, Im a holy man Im a holy man, Im a holy man

And the stones, they knew And the trees, they knew
And the girls an boys They whispered it, too

Hes a holy man, hes a holy man
Hes a holy man, hes a holy man
They build three crosses upon a hill
The sky was overcast
The earth did quake a little bit
Some birds fell down at last
And the water knew
And the fire, too
And the winds, they blew
Be true, be true
Hes a holy man, hes a holy man
Hes a holy man, hes a holy man
Hes a holy man, hes a holy man
Hes a holy man, hes a holy man