

Furthermore, Another Dimension

Well x8

Come along,
To another Dimension, not at all
An impossible mission, no competition
No more to wait, Silly straw mines are in line with age (?)

I have enough verse, crystal clear
Here's my delux serplux just a clue
Of the thought that stuff I come up with
In my green walls monkey shine through
Check 1, 2, string into a summer song
I saw Autumn run into a hall
I might thought myself speeding the solar systems
Leading light years astray, maybe my fault (fault)
Not the season for a song (stash), stash you way (way) back
In the attic
1, 2, 3 I've had it, the dream I mean
Two better decisions, better then supreme, I mean everything
And the kitchen sink, in the song can't go without love for long

Come along,
To another Dimension, not at all
An impossible mission, no competition
No more to wait, Silly straw mines are in line with age (?) x2

I have enough verse, crystal cleary
The other deary, and in no where neary
As good as I can Get
And I will Bet
That I will
Live up to my hope
I know one thing, if there's a thin line between love and hate
I walk the tight rope, come in closer
I can choke the life out of your life that's someone else (now)
You come back and revisit yourself (now)
If you believe that sort of thing is like falling in love
With the mirror, but what's more clear is life viewed Through those in the fun house, wave goodbye to water's without scurrying up the steel nest(?) without my Sitting on the fence is just a stand by Cause I don't want to waste my time till it runs out

Come along,
To another Dimension, not at all
An impossible mission, no competition
No more to wait, Silly straw mines are in line with age (?) (Repeats x6 then fade out)
