

Gaia Riva, One

One the skin I kissed
One the man I missed
One is what I've lost
One who pays the cost
One the day I die
One will to survive
One the hand I use
One the word confused

One the breath I take
One that day I break
One consuming dream
One girl I esteem
One is what I like
One day is mine
One is what I want
One's the yes of slave
One's the arm of faith

One is my regret
One is what I'm trying to get
One the meaning of the feast
One the Beauty and the Beast
One the best breast size
One the voice I recognize
One the answer I want
One's the yes of slave
One's the arm of faith

One the breath I take
One that day I break
One consuming dream
One girl I esteem
One is what I like
One day is mine
One is what I want
One's the yes of slave
the voice I recognize (oh yeah)
One's the arm of faith
the voice I recognize (babe, oh yeah)

One the skin I kissed
One the man I missed
One is what I've lost
One who pays the cost
One the day I die
One will to survive
One the hand I use
One the word confused
the word confused (x3)
