

Gamma Ray, I Will Return

I'll be back

I know that you know
That they'll never care About the spirit of our freedom In a world that's meant to share

And you know that I know It's time for rebirth When it's cold and full of darkness and the angels left the earth

Through the eyes of time you'll see All the pain and tragedy never lose the will to be, deep inside of you

I - I will return
from the light in the heavens when man must learn Now- it's time to turn so bright and enlightning the skies will burn
when I return

I stand alone here
I wait for a sign to get a glimpse beyond illusion let the light of wisdom shine searching for answers my heart's full of fear will I face another rainbow when the dark skies disappear

I give you shelter from the rain a taste of freedom from the pain Never lose the will to live -now!

I - I will return
with thunder and lightning When all man must learn Crucified - I never died in times of evil and madness
the skies will burn
when I return

(Solo Henjo, Kai, Henjo, Kai, Henjo, both) hope will wipe away the tears break the spell of ancient fears go and live for better days now!

I - I will return
with thunder and lightening now all man must learn Crucified - I've never died
