

Gare Du Nord, Marvin & Miles

tall guy in the corner tenor sax at hand i guess i had to warn her she wouldn't understand she's freaking out on music a variety of styles and now she's stuck in the middle with the moods of marvin & miles you know you've got me so excited the tenor softly said i don't know how to hide it let's have a ball instead she slipped into his nightmare for longer than a while

and now she's stuck in the middle

she really doesn't know it's plain to see he's not working on her family tree you see it's all part of the show it's only tenor men's job to blow so now the blue notes flow and she's free to go and rise to the occasion of an all time low i guess she knows how it feels to be blown away in be bop style ooh i know... it's like you're stuck in the middle
