

Gary Numan, Blue Eyes

Well you're pretty quick to say you love me
But I've met your kind before
So I took you twice on our first night
That doesn't mean I'm going to trust you too far

Love your blue eyes
When you cry
Love your blue eyes

You tried to make me crawl far too soon
But you should know me better by now
I didn't even feel like trying with you
I knew that I could break you somehow

Love your blue eyes
When you cry
Love your blue eyes
